

03 READING PRACTICE

Use the word given in capital letters to form a word that fits in the gap in the same line.

Rome is one of the most 0) VISITED cities in the world.

VISIT

With ancient history dating back more than two and a half thousand years, 17) architecture, museums, culture, and cuisine, it isn't hard to see why this city is so 18) popular with tourists from all over the world. It is also quite big as a city as it has the fourth biggest population in the European Union, so many tourists find themselves returning again and again to see what they weren't able to see the first time.

CREDIBLE

IMMENSE

While Roman 19) claims the city was founded around 753 BC, the site has 20) been inhabited by humans for much longer, making Rome one of the oldest

MYTH

ACTUAL

21) occupied locations in Europe. It has been a kingdom, a republic, an empire, and then a republic again. It even houses the tiny 22) country state of the Vatican City within its walls, which only adds to its cultural importance and 23) Rome will always be considered one of the most 24) cities in Europe.

CONTINUE

DEPEND

DIVERSE

HISTORY