

VOCABULARY

fallacy - flout - edify - dispel - dismantle - penchant lambaste - introspection - degeneration - resilience

Match the words to the definition.

- 1) - the examination of and attention to your own ideas, thoughts and feelings. (n)
- 2) - the process by which something gets worse. (n)
- 3) - to intentionally not obey a rule, law or custom. (v)
- 4) - a liking for, an enjoyment of, or a habit of doing something, especially something that other people might not like. (n)
- 5) - the ability to be happy, successful, etc. again after something difficult or bad has happened. (n)
- 6) - an idea that a lot of people think is true but is in fact false. (n)
- 7) - to remove fears, doubts, and false ideas, usually by proving them wrong or unnecessary (v)
- 8) - to take a machine or piece of equipment apart so that it is in separate pieces (v)
- 9) - to criticise someone or something severely. (v)
- 10) - to improve someone's mind (v)

Write the word in the missing sentence. Change the verb tenses and part of speech if needed.

- 1) A personal attack during an argument is called an Ad Hominem and is considered to be a logical
- 2) Travel is an experience - one that can change one's perspective and open them up to a new way of thinking.
- 3) The press secretary any rumours that the president had been in bad health.
- 4) Many large corporations continue to environmental laws despite pushback from protestors.
- 5) She always had a for breaking the rules. Maybe it was the thrill of getting away with it, or maybe it was a cry for help.
- 6) In the internet age, it is common for famous people to be publicly by their critics.
- 7) Speech often occurs in children who become deaf after acquiring language.
- 8) Tardigrades are arguably the most animal on earth. They seem adept at living in some of the harshest regions of Earth.
- 9) The after-school program was due to a lack of support and funding.
- 10) In philosophy, has been a subject of philosophical discussion for thousands of years.